Niki Live Host Benefits:

Become a Niki Live Host today and thrive on your career in the live-streaming industry. This platform offers monetization through various features like virtual gifts, tasks, etc.

Host Task Reward Policy:

- Niki Live only recruits female hosts.
- When the weekly income of the hosts is greater than a particular amount, they will be eligible for additional rewards as per the achieved level.
- The reward duration is 2-3 hours per day depending on the levels.

Other Notices:

- Last 7 days = Today + last 6 Days.
- When your daily earnings go up a level, your daily reward increases too. You can only claim this reward once each period.
- The duration task only counts the time you spend in video parties and live broadcasts.
- Total income includes earnings from gifts and game-sharing.
- If a host registers multiple accounts, including on different devices, all rewards will be canceled.
Withdraw Rules:

- The ratio: 10000 Beans = $1.
- The minimum withdrawal amount is $10 or in the multiplication of 10.

- The host can opt from the various withdrawal methods based on the country including Epay, Payonner, Paypal, bank transfer, and many more.
- The service charges will vary as per the chosen withdrawal method.

How to start Live-streaming:

- Click on the "Live icon" in the bottom right corner of the home page.
- Remember to change the profile picture.
- There are three types of live streams: Audio Party, Video Party, and Live. Make sure to choose the right one.

Live Host Standard:

- Your main goal is to earn gifts, so make sure to keep users engaged and stay in your live room as long as possible.

- Show off your best self and make sure your live setup looks great (including the background, decorations, lighting, and theme).

Rules and Regulation:

- Hosts can't register multiple accounts.
- Sexual content is not allowed during public broadcasts.
- Promoting third-party platforms is not allowed.
- Minors are not allowed to livestream.

Live Cover Rules:

- Only hosts with approved cover photos will be featured on the live broadcast page.
- Your cover photo should be appealing.
- The background of your livestream should be clean and well-lit.
- It's recommended to use a high-quality upper-body photo for your cover.
Live Stream Tips:

- Keep your face visible on camera during the stream.
- Sit comfortably and stay focused on the broadcast —avoid lying in bed.
- Maintain a clean and well-lit streaming environment.
- Wear makeup, dress appropriately, and use beauty features as needed.

How to Start a Quality Live Broadcast:

Before Live-Streaming:

- Always start your live-streaming in a neat and tidy background. (use the solid color wall or curtain of your home as the background)
- Keep the device at a good distance so that the upper body is visible in the camera, not just the face.
- Ensure to use the make-up or choose a good filter that suits the face.
- These are the good quality images for live-streaming:

- These are low-quality images, which is not applicable.

- Use good quality profile and cover photos.
- The host must understand all the rules and policies

During Live-Streaming:

- While streaming, the host can ask familiar users to check your live broadcast scene and the camera angle. And fix the needful immediately.
- Engage with the users coming on your streaming session, greet, and interact. The users must get hooked on the live broadcast. (introduce some activities at the start of the live-streaming to make the users engage)

- The host must remember to encourage and guide the users to send virtual gifts during the live-streaming. Also, ask the users to like and follow their accounts which will eventually promote the hosts.
- Express gratitude towards the viewers and keep the live-streaming interactive.
